Latin: Fortūna, equivalent to the Greek goddess Tyche) is the goddess of fortune and the personification of luck in Roman religion who, largely thanks to the Late Antique author Boethius, remained popular through the Middle Ages until at least the Renaissance.

Some of the earliest traces of Tyche, whose name translates to mean 'luck', 'chance', or 'fortune', date back to the poet Pindar of the 5th century BC, who refers to her as "a savior goddess," other indications of her influence are found in the works of Hesiod in the 7th century BC.

The Greek Goddess Tyche once stood as a symbol of luck and chance for many ancient Greeks. Later evolving into not only a guiding divinity for the individual, but a broader personification of protection over ancient cities (and even nations), her popularity spread over massive geographical regions.

Greek Goddess Tyche, Lady Fortuna is often seen holding onto a cornucopia spilling coins of wealth. Others are holding a cornucopia overflowing with fruits, signifying the abundance of crops for the region depicted, and/or an infant – which signified wealth.

Although combined with many other deities and adorned with countless varying embellishments to embody the intentions of any number of political or religious strategies, the Goddess Tyche/Fortuna has remained a figure of great interest and intrigue over many centuries.

As we pass through history, evolving hopes and desires, one pulls from her influences to manifest her ongoing presence throughout time. She is truly a blessing, a goddess of wealth, a guiding light and a symbol of true abundance. Those who worship Goddess Tyche (Lady Fortuna) are known to have led highly favourable and wealthy lives.

As you continue to go through the chapters of this book, you will discover the commandments of wealth and money prayers that have been recited since the ancient times til the modern days, and it is bound to bring you good fortune, money, wealth and abundance into your life.

7 Commandments Of Wealth

To gain the attention of Lady Fortuna, you must first commit to these 7 commandments of wealth.

+ Give and you shall receive +

+ Try +

+ Gratitude +

+ Clarity +

+ Embody Your Thoughts +

+ Faith +

+ Health +

+ Give and you shall receive +

The first law of wealth, when you give you shall receive. What you reap you shall sow.

Giving puts you automatically in the state of abundance. A person who has a lack or not enough, cannot give. On the opposite side, a person who has enough, can give.

When you give, it shows that you have enough thus you are showing Lady Fortuna that you have abundance, and she will reward you with more.

Practice giving, even if it means a little.

+ Try +

Lady Fortuna favours those who tries.

Lady Luck doesn't reward a person who isn't willing to do anything. Such will not happen.

Luck is the dividends of efforts, and the more you try, the better luck you have and the better luck you have, the more money you shall have.

The more money you have, the more life options you shall have and thus bringing you wealth.

Take action, even if it means trying. Without the baby steps, you won't be able to run.

+ Gratitude +

When one is grateful, he/she will have more. "Gratitude is most powerful prayer."

When you are grateful, your perspective of life shifts. There is no room for negativity at all.

All positive emotions flourish in the state of gratitude and healing begins to take place in all dimensions.

Practice being grateful for even the smallest things. For your meal you just had, the water you just drank, the clean air you just breathed in. Watch the magic happen!

+ Clarity +

When there is no destination, everywhere is nowhere.

You need to know where you want to go.

The clearer the plan, the easier it is to attract money. "Money is attracted to those with a plan!"

How much do you want to be making?

What is the first step you should be taking?

What is the next step? And the next?

Lady Fortuna rewards those who have clarity about their life. Even if it means just a vague plan.

Start refining it, sharpening it and you are bound to attract more wealth into your life!

+ Embody Your Thoughts +

If you want something, you have start to ACTING like it, FEELING like it and BEING like it.

Embody your thoughts of your future, walk the way you want to walk.

Start rehearsing these thoughts in your mind, over and over again until it becomes your reality.

The earlier you begin rehearsing these thoughts, the faster you'll get there.

+ Faith +

Even in the deepest darkest times, there's always hope. And the ability to remain hopeful, is faith.

When one has lost all hope, belief and faith, he/she stops trying.

So long as one is still faithful, anything and EVERYTHING is in your favour.

Lady Fortuna will never forsaken those with faith.

ALWAYS have faith. The breakthrough is just around the corner.

+ Health +

Health is the crown on the head of the healthy, in the eyes of the sick. No matter how much wealth or fortune you have accumulated, without health, everything is lost.

In bad health, none of it is enjoyable.

Prioritise your health. Commit to doing something daily that will give you a stronger immune system, longevity and vitality.

After all, what's having all the wealth in the world, when you can't enjoy it?
